

Industry Perspective to TT Part 1

Mitch Dibbs – The Dow Chemical Company

Russ Frew – Lockheed Martin Corporation

Dorothy Stermer – Sandia National Laboratories

Bob Coraor – Air Products and Chemicals (moderator)

May 17, 2007

FLC

Arlington, TX

IRI-ETDN and FLC

- FLC & IRI look for ways to collaborate
- Ed Linsenmeyer & Gary Jones meet with IRI
- IRI's network for External Technology Directors meet with Ed in Florida
- Examples of collaborations that work (and some that did not)

Dr. Mitchell Dibbs

The Dow Chemical Company

- R&D Leader – External Technology since 2004
- 20+ years at Dow
- Responsible for planning, development and administration of external research efforts

Russell E. Frew

Lockheed Martin

- VP–Programs and Technology for Electronic Systems Business area
- Responsible for technology development and program performance along with technology strategy and the investment plan
- Executive responsibility for the Advanced Technology Lab in Cherry Hill, NJ

Dorothy Stermer

Sandia National Laboratories

- Manages the Tech Partnership Office at Sandia
- Manages the Shared Vision Program
- Develops strategic partnership models with various customers
- Has been at Sandia since 1989 and in the partnership role for 10 years

Dr. Robert J. Coraor

Air Products and Chemicals

- Manager Technology Transfer for 7 years
- Responsible for External Technology relationships
- 30 years at Air Products in various technical roles

